FRENCH RARE WINES

2015 Chablis Grand Cru Les Clos, Jean-Paul & Benoît Droin

Bottle
120

Fresh and vibrant; this Chablis has transporting aromas of green apples, lemon zest, spring flowers, and characteristic flint and chalk notes.

Jean Paul & Benoît Droin is one of the oldest wine producers in Chablis with nearly 400 years of wine-growing history. The estate is well known for its spread of impressive vineyard land, including plots in five of the seven Chablis Grand Cru vineyards, the most important of which is Les Clos. The subsequent portfolio is based entirely on Chardonnay.

2014 Chablis Grand Cru, Valmur, Jean-Claude et Romain Bessin

88

With shellfish, you can think of the wine as a squeeze of lemon – tangy, crisp, minerally wines tend to be particularly successful with salty, metallic, raw shellfish.

Valmur is a central climate of the Chablis Grand Cru hill in northern Burgundy. The vineyard covers a small valley cut into the slope, rising from the Serein valley below to the forested peak of the hill. Valmur Grand Cru wine is considered by many to be one of the best expressions of Chardonnay produced in Chablis: producing steely, powerful wines made for ageing.

2014 Chablis Grand Cru, Les Clos, Domaine Pinson

Chablis Les Clos wines are generally more powerful and intense than the other Grand Crus, and are often associated with ripe stonefruit, orange peel and honey.

Les Clos is the largest, most widely known, and - according to many - the best of the seven climats of the Chablis Grand Cru appellation. It covers a single, southwest-facing slope above the town of The 66 acre vineyard is situated at the southern end of the Grand Cru slopes.

White Rare Wines

2014 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru, Domaine Paul Pillot, Clos Saint-Jean

Bottle
89

Pale golden coloured this wine has a wonderful nose of faint vanilla and citrus. On the palate it is a great balance of oak and fruit. Big citrus finish with a creamy oaky upfront punch.

Domaine Paul Pillot is a leading Burgundy estate based in Chassagne-Montrachet. It produces restrained, minerally wines made from Chardonnay as well as several wines from Pinot Noir. The fermentation process is conducted with wild yeasts and after, the lees are not allowed to settle before the wine is placed in barrel, which is said to contribute silkiness to the final wines. Domaine Paul Pillot uses minimal amounts of new oak – around 20 percent for most of the white Premier Crus.

2015 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru, Domaine de Montille

Classic Corton-Charlemagne is considered to be amongst the finest of Burgundy's whites, and is famous for its combination of fruit flavors (figs and baked pears) and mineral character (flint).

Domaine de Montille is a Burgundy producer known for its Pinot Noir from highly regarded vineyards in Côte de Beaune and Côte de Nuits. The family has an extensive history in Burgundy, and the estate has carried the de Montille name since 1863.

2019 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Champ Canet, Jean-Marc Boillot

Very pale yellow. Aromas of apple and toasty lees. In a polite style but with good density and attractive lemony cut. The slowly mounting finish throws off notes of lemon, grapefruit and blood orange.

Domaine J.M. Boillot (also known as Domaine Jean-Marc Boillot) is a Burgundy wine estate producing pure, aromatic wines from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. The white wines are aged for around 11 months in oak, around 30 percent of which is new. The wines are not raked, although the lees are stirred weekly. Wines are sampled just before bottling to determine whether fining or filtration are required.
